

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the encouragement of individual creativity and invention is essential to the continued economic and technological growth of South Dakota and the United States, and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota inventors are making a significant contribution to manufacturing and processing industries in the State since many of their inventions have progressed to the production stage, and,

WHEREAS, it is highly desirable that inventors in South Dakota in order to continue to make this valuable contribution to the economy, be provided with a forum whereby they are able to take their inventions before the general public to evaluate marketing possibilities and, at the same time, have an opportunity to meet with financing and production authorities to gain information on the possible manufacture of their product, and,

WHEREAS, the South Dakota Inventors Congress furnishes South Dakota inventors this forum and this opportunity, and,

WHEREAS, the Third Annual South Dakota Inventors Congress will be held in Aberdeen on January 31 through February 2, 1964,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCHIE GUBBRUD, Governor of South Dakota, do hereby designate the week beginning January 27, 1964, as

and urge that all citizens recognize the importance of inventors in our state, the stimulus their creative genius gives to industry and the broadening of employment opportunities which invention of new products makes possible.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed on this 30th day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three.
